APPROVED AS TO FORM AND LEGALITY

CITY ATTORNEY

ORDINANCE NO. 12550 C.M.S.

ORDINANCE AMENDING CHAPTERS 1.08, "CIVIL PENALTIES", CHAPTER 1.12, "ADMINISTRATIVE CITATIONS" AND CHAPTER 1.16, "ALTERNATIVE ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURE FOR ABATEMENT OF CERTAIN VIOLATIONS" OF THE OAKLAND MUNICIPAL CODE FOR ENFORCEMENT OF PUBLIC NUISANCE ACTIONS

Whereas, in 1995 and 1997 the City established findings demonstrating that there existed significant property maintenance and property-related nuisance problems in the City of Oakland which could be largely addressed by local enforcement of state and local laws designed to protect the public health, safety and welfare; and

Whereas, administrative procedures to impose civil penalties and citations were instituted to address said public nuisance property problems; and

Whereas, public nuisance activities include, but are not limited to: the illegal sale, use or possession of controlled substances or other illegal drugs and substances; the illegal possession, use or sale of firearms, public urination or defecation; acts of violence affecting the community, neighborhood or considerable number of people; illegal discharge of a firearm or explosives; the making of loud, unnecessary or unusual noise which disturbs the peace and quiet of the neighborhood; intentional obstruction of pedestrians or vehicular traffic in the public right-of-way; the solicitation or occurrence of prostitution; illegal gambling; unlawful activities of a criminal street gang; drug loitering; the presence of unregistered vehicles or improperly stored, inoperative, wrecked, or dismantled vehicles on property and any activities or conduct that are detrimental to the protection, health, safety and general public welfare of the residents of the city; and

Whereas, the amendments as proposed herein shall establish broader grounds for public nuisance actions and provide a more expeditious, streamlined administrative process for the prosecution of public nuisance actions for abatement against property owners that maintain public nuisances on their properties within City boundaries; and

Whereas, the City Council intends that the amendments authorized hereunder apply to the fullest extent possible to any and all nuisance properties including, but not limited to, properties owned, operated, regulated or overseen by the Oakland Housing Authority;

NOW, THEREFORE, THE CITY COUNCIL DOES HEREBY ORDAIN AS FOLLOWS:

SECTION I. Oakland Municipal Code, Title 1, Chapter 1.08 is hereby amended as follows:

The occurrence of anything which is injurious to health, including, but not limited to, the illegal sale of controlled substances, or is indecent or offensive to the senses, or an obstruction to the free use of property, so as to interfere with the comfortable enjoyment of life or property, or unlawfully obstructs the free passage or use, in the customary manner, of any navigable lake, or river, bay, stream, canal, or basin, or any public park, square, street, or highway, which affects at the same time an entire community or neighborhood, or any considerable number of persons, although the extent of the annoyance or damage inflicted upon individuals may be unequal; or
3. The occurrence of any public nuisance as known at common law or in equity jurisprudence, or
4. The violation of any state or federal law or regulations under which such violation is deemed a public nuisance.

B. Civil penalties established in this chapter are in addition to any other administrative or legal remedy which may be pursued by the city to address violations of the codes and ordinances identified in this chapter.

- A. Violation. A violation shall exist whenever any provision of the codes and ordinances identified in this chapter has been violated and the real property or structure thereon identified with the violation has been declared and remains a public nuisance.
- B. Public Nuisance. For the purposes of this chapter, a public nuisance shall exist whenever a condition on a property is maintained in violation of codes and ordinances identified in this chapter or in violation of California Civil Code Sections 3479 and 3480, or at common law or in equity jurisprudence. A public nuisance shall also exist whenever a condition so identified is corrected but recurs, and continues as a recurrent problem.
