				Policy Recommendation(s)	It is vital a report written by an undercover officer sets forth what the undercover officer saw, who he saw do it, and what he told the arrest team to do. Secondhand information by another officer is not sufficient, especially should an arrest or criminal prosecution arise. It is recommended that an OPD rule clearly make this a requirement.
				Training Recommendation(s)	CPRA recommends retraining as to what reasonable suspicion is; what probable cause is; when a person may have a full body search; what a Terry stop is; when a vehicle may be searched; and when an entire vehicle may be searched, versus just a particular item in the vehicle where suspected drugs may be located.
