

DEPARTMENTAL GENERAL ORDER

R-01: RISK MANAGEMENT

Effective Date: DD MMM YY

Coordinator: Bureau of Risk Management

COMMAND INTENT

Understanding, assessing, and managing risk – to officers, the Department, and the City of Oakland – is critically important. The Department’s Bureau of Risk Management conducts data-based assessments of risk behavior, helps the Department mitigate risk by developing interventions and other strategies for individual officers, and promotes policies and procedures to reduce risk in the Department.

A. OVERVIEW OF RISK MANAGEMENT AND DEFINITIONS

A - 1. Defining Risk

With regard to law enforcement, risk refers to the potential for damage, injury, inability to achieve objectives, or other negative occurrences. The failure to address risk may result in lawsuits and legal claims, injuries to police officers or community members, property damage, damage to the Department’s reputation, harm to officers’ law enforcement careers, and the erosion of trust between the Department and the community it serves.

A - 2. Risk Management

Risk Management is a comprehensive, proactive approach to the reduction of risks associated with organizational operations. While it is impossible to eliminate all risk, a comprehensive risk management program allows an organization to meet its strategic goals/fulfill its mission and build a culture where risk management is engrained at every level of the organization. Risk management involves recognizing risks, prioritizing risks, and mitigating those risks. Some common risk mitigation strategies include a clear vision from leadership, data collection/analysis, training, supervisory review, and accountability measures.

A - 3. Role of the Bureau of Risk Management

The goal of the Bureau of Risk Management (BRM) is to identify and manage risk through analysis of individual and organizational activity, including employee conduct, citizen contacts, use of force, pursuits, traffic collisions, training, command and supervisory direction, and personnel decisions.

The BRM analyzes levels of risk, develops focused and specific risk management interventions, and provides training throughout the Department to ensure that all members understand and implement the overall risk management strategy of the Department. The Bureau of Risk Management is integral in maintaining a culture of risk awareness and risk management throughout the different levels and units of the organization. It includes the Office of Inspector General, the Training Division and the Internal Affairs Division.

Within the Office of Inspector General, there are four Units dedicated to risk management: the Risk Analysis Unit (RAU), the Personnel Assessment System (PAS) Unit, the Risk Impact Unit (RIU), and the Audit Unit. While the Training Division and Internal Affairs Division also fall under the Bureau of Risk Management, their roles and responsibilities are clearly defined within other policies. The co-location of all these Divisions and Units allow for a coordinated approach to risk management.

B. CONSTITUENT PARTS OF THE DEPARTMENT'S RISK MANAGEMENT SYSTEM

B - 1. Risk Management as Organization-Wide Responsibility

The Department's risk management strategy depends on an overall understanding that every member of the organization has the responsibility to identify, respond to, and mitigate risk when possible. This is consistent with the requirements that all members take steps to intervene if they observe another member using excessive force (as set forth in DGO K-3) and report any offenses in violation of Department policy (as required by the Manual of Rules, Reporting Violations-Failure to Report Misconduct When Required, 314.48-1).

B - 2. Role of Supervisors and Commanders/Managers in Risk Management

Supervisors play a key role in risk management by being a primary identifier of behavior or actions that could increase risk to their subordinates. It is incumbent on supervisors to constantly identify risk, manage it at their level whenever appropriate, and provide training to their subordinates on ways to appropriately manage acceptable risk and avoid unacceptable risk.

Commanders and Managers also play an important role in risk management by setting the expectations for their respective commands on proper risk management, as well as by acting as conduits for information coming from larger risk management entities and processes (e.g. the Bureau of Risk Management or Risk Management Meetings).

B - 3. Personnel Assessment Systems (PAS) - Early Warning System

The Department's early warning system, known as PAS (Personnel Assessment System), is a pro-active, non-disciplinary, early identification and intervention program designed to identify and positively influence conduct, correct performance – related problems, and recognize exemplary performance.¹ PAS oversees assessment, evaluation, and management of risk by officers, establishing performance standards and providing the requirement for supervisors, commanders, and managers to review their subordinate's performance as it relates to these standards. PAS allows for peer group threshold comparisons for review of outliers, with subsequent review and potential follow-up action. The Department's use of PAS as part of its overall risk management strategy is key in its risk management processes.

PAS contributes to the Department's ability to better maintain supervisory and managerial accountability, ensure consistent high-quality performance standards vertically and laterally in the organization and ensure policy compliance throughout the organization. (Reference DGO D-17, Personnel Assessment System).

B - 4. Risk Analysis Unit

The Risk Analysis Unit (RAU), overseen by the Department's Data Manager, is responsible for analyzing key areas of risk such as the PAS dimensions, stop and enforcement data (to include whether disparities exist in outcomes or practices), and other police data that is recorded by the Department. This analysis includes assessment of department trends, drilldowns to individual-level concerns, and drill-ups to review the impact of supervisory and command decisions on risk. The RAU is also responsible for analysis, preparation of documents and discussion points for Risk Management Meetings, and creation and evaluation of various risk management thresholds and measurements used by the Department in other areas of risk management. Note section C-1 for RAU minimum staffing.

B - 5. Risk Impact Unit

The Risk Impact Unit (RIU) tracks data including, but not necessarily limited to, uses of force, collisions, and pursuits; and supports the use of force and pursuit board processes. The RIU identifies areas in need of improvement through data collection and analysis and training needs assessments, and makes recommendations for organizational improvements. The RIU shall at minimum be staffed by a supervisor and two support staff members, though this does not preclude the Department from adding staff to the unit.

B - 6. Risk Management Meetings

The Department's Risk Management Meetings (RMMs) provide data and command insight to analyze, assess, and mitigate risk, from the level of the Area/Division through the Bureau and to the Department as a whole. This includes recommendations and reviews of officers who are identified for supervisory monitoring and intervention. Risk Management Meetings are held at the Division/Area level, Bureau level, and Citywide level.

C. RISK ANALYSIS UNIT (RAU)

C - 1. RAU Staffing

The Department's Data Manager oversees the RAU. The RAU, at the direction of the Chief of Police and/or designee, may provide direction to other units and staff to accomplish the responsibilities of the office as set forth below. The Risk Analysis

Unit shall at minimum be staffed by a Data Manager and an Administrative Analyst, though this does not preclude the Department from adding staff to the unit.

C - 2. RAU Responsibilities

The responsibilities of the RAU include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Developing and setting peer group comparison and methodology in concert with the PAS Administration Unit (PAU);²
- Developing and defining specific criteria, utilizing PAS data, for determining whether members may be engaging in at-risk behavior;³
- Assisting with preparations for Citywide, Bureau, and Area/Division RMM;⁴
- Consulting with the Audit Unit on trends for possible audits;

- Facilitating the Bureau and Citywide RMM; and
- Identifying areas of concern or trends for commanders to consider during RMM.

C - 3. RAU Documentation Creation Responsibilities

The documents produced by the RAU include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Risk Analysis Report – Monthly. A snapshot report that shows critical PAS dimensions plus stop data, broken down by Bureau or Area with percentage changes and year-to-date comparisons;⁵
- Risk Analysis Supplemental Analysis Report – Quarterly. Additional charts, graphs, in-depth review, squad comparisons, and other analysis, including trend lines or other visual representations of data (e.g., sparklines) where appropriate, as directed by the RAU manager to provide context and analysis for upcoming topics of conversation at the Bureau and Citywide RMM;
- Quarterly reports for the IAD Commander, and a yearly report for the annual PAS meeting, regarding internal investigation outcomes by race. A copy of these reports shall be sent to the Office of Chief of Police, IAD Captain, all Bureau

⁹ For instance (under the Department organization as of February 2022), the BFO 1 Deputy Chief would attend the Area 1, 2, and 3 meetings, the BFO 2 Deputy Chief would attend the Area 4, 5, and 6 meetings, the Bureau of Investigations Deputy Chief would attend the VCOC and CID meetings, and the Assistant Chief would attend the Ceasefire meeting.

e. Collisions

- Review of monitoring/intervention status and strategies for any individual members of the Area/Division on PAS monitoring/intervention;
- Identification of larger trends, analysis, and audit assignments (for Area/Division Commanders or Supervisors) regarding areas identified by RAU, relevant employee performance information concerning personnel under that command, supervision and leadership, and individual risk management, and ongoing or future risk management strategies to address both individual and overall risk trends.

D - 3. Description of Analyses Used During / as a Result of RMM Meetings

Different types of analyses shall be warranted depending on the data and the issues observed during review in an Area/Division RMM. These analyses shall include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Drilldowns: A drill-down is a review that focuses on changes in data to determine which specific groups or individuals are impacting the changes. Drilldowns are useful to understand whether specific actions or events involving OPD members were consistent with Department priorities, expectations, and best practices, and help supervisors and commanders determine if intervention is required to change behavior or actions. Drilldowns may be completed using the Department's data systems such Vision, Risk Management Dashboards, and other reporting tools.
- Drill-ups: A drill-up is a way to "zoom out" from the data to examine the larger context, determining whether larger patterns or systemic issues exist that require more than individual interventions. Drill-ups may also be useful in detecting policy or training deficiencies, or larger issues with supervision or command that have an impact on more than one individual.
- Pattern and Trend Analysis: If a trend is noted (e.g., an increase in the amount of vehicle pursuits in an Area, a decline in the number of arrests versus the same period last year, etc.), pattern and trend analysis is a process of formulating hypotheses as to why the pattern or trend might be occurring and testing (as much as is possible) those hypotheses against available data.
