Open Forum:

Sheila Gunn-Cushmann introduces herself as the new Emergency Preparedness Coordinator for the Independent Living Center. She plans to regularly attend MCPD meetings and would like to be involved in any emergency preparedness planning that the City is undertaking.

Exhibit A

No modifications were suggested for the agenda.

Commissioner's Announcements and Strategic Plan Updates

- Marjorie Lynne brings up the end of the Covid state of emergency and raises a potential concern regarding coverage of telehealth visits as many were developed under the emergency act. Such visits are a huge benefit to persons with disabilities. Additionally, Marjorie Lynne would like more information about how the City is going to cover Covid testing and the distribution of Paxlovid.
- Kyle O'Malley brings up the implementation of Care Courts and states that to the extent anyone is interested in supporting the litigation designed to challenge Care Courts- the public is permitted to send a letter to the Supreme Court of California. If anyone is interested in more information about that process- they can reach out to Kyle or Disability Rights California.
- Vice-Chair Smith informs the Commission that he has been communicating with the Mayor's office and it's likely that two additional commissioners will be sworn in by the March MCPD meeting.

Vice-Chair Eberhardt was able to join the meeting and quorum was subsequently established.

2023 Strategic Planning (Exhibit C to Agenda)

- Andrea Mariano suggests moving this discussion to the March meeting in the hopes that the additional commissioners will be sworn in.
- Vice-Chair Smith moves to table this action item to next month and Kyle O'Malley seconds. The motion passes unanimously.

Now that quorum has been established, the Commissioners return to the agenda item of the January 2023 minutes. Kyle O'Malley moves to approve them and Vice-Chair Smith seconds. The motion to approve the January 2023 minutes passes.

Election of 2023 Officers

Exhibit A

- Vice Chair Smith notes that the MCPD is several months delayed in electing new officers but also states that they are due to have two new commissioners join next month. He is inclined to wait until next month, provided they can elect new officers before the strategic planning agenda item.
- Marjorie Lynn moves for the Commission to delay election until there are more officers available. Vice Chair Smith seconds Marjorie's motion and the motion passes unanimously.

The Brown Act, Amendment AB 2449, and In-Person Commission Requirements (Exhibit B to Agenda)

- Vice-Chair Smith begins the conversation by noting that with the end of the Covid State of Emergency, subsequent MCPD meetings are scheduled to take place in person. He notes that this may pose difficulties for both Commissioners and members of the public with disabilities, and it may be worth doing some advocacy around this issue.
- Anh Nguyen leads a presentation about the Brown Act and Public Meeting requirements:
 - A message from the City Administrator's Office confirms that all public bodies subject to the Brown Act that were temporarily allowed to meet virtually, will be required to resume in-person meetings following the lifting of the emergency order on February 28, 2023.
 - The City plans to use Zoom to allow members of the public to observe meetings. They are not allowing people to provide comments via Zoom at this time, but hope to provide that capability in the future
 - The Brown Act requires all members of public bodies to ensure that locations where any commission attends a meeting are open to the public
 - AB 2449 amends the Brown Act to allow teleconferencing without location publication in two circumstances:
 - 1) Just cause which is defined as a child or caregiving need, contagious illness, a need related to a disability, or business travel. A commissioner can only use the just cause requirement for a maximum of 2 meetings per year.

Exhibit A

- 2) Emergency circumstances which is defined as a physical or family medical emergency that prevents a member from attending in person.
- AB 2449 specifies that a quorum of the legislative body must still participate from a single physical location, identified in the agenda and open to the public. Further, no member may participate solely by teleconference for more than 3 consecutive months.
- Sheila Gunn-Cushmann comments about how beneficial remote meetings have been for disabled individuals- allowing some to get involved in civil advocacy who had never been able to be at the table before. She states that the purpose of the Brown Act was never to hamper communities from being engaged and the law should be brought into the present.
- Anh Nguyen mentions a new Senate bill, Bill 411, that has been introduced, which offers similar hybrid flexibility, similar to what was in effect during the state of emergency. ADA Programs has been working with the State Disability Council to learn more and see how MCPD could advocate for potential hybrid meetings.

Equity in Oakland's Emergency Operations Plan (Exhibit D to Agenda)

- Zack Adinoff begins the presentation. He notes that the emergency operations plan must undergo an equity analysis which includes, in addition to race, the access and functional needs population.
- The Emergency Operations plan is meant to describe how people, property, and the environment will be protected during an emergency. The document lists the roles and responsibilities of City employees and how all can work together to prepare for, respond to, and recover from an emergency.
- A big part of the plan's equity analysis is looking at the various hurdles that different community's face and how different privileges influence how one might be able to prepare for a disaster.
- The race and equity analysis initially started as a purely research analysis: finding out what academic literature discusses the influence of race and Access needs for disasters. They then cross-referenced that with Oakland's demographics to reach conclusions about shortcomings the City may face. One challenge is that there has not been a major event in Oakland for some time.

- The major areas impacted were found to be:
 - Personal finance. This includes that low-income household are less likely to have insurance, less likely to be able to purchase disaster kits, more likely to have lower credit scores.
 - Education: most of the resources are located on the City's website and this community often lacks in digital literacy and/or faces digital accessibility challenges.
 - Evacuation: most evacuation drills are not designed inclusively and so do not benefit or include those with disabilities. It will be important to include those with disabilities in future drills to better understand their needs. Also, Oakland has narrow roads which makes it difficult for those with emergency vehicles to get through and may make it difficult for those who rely on medical devices to leave their home if they lose access to their medical supplies.
- During outreach, community members noted they were unaware of what events to prepare for and how to do that preparation.
- Alert systems: Zack encourages everyone to sign-up for AC Alert notifications (acalert.com) and Zonehaven (evacuations by zone: aware.zonehaven.com). They also encourage people to know their zone- so when zone evacuations are announced- individuals are ready to evacuate immediately
- Sheila Gunn-Cushmann comments that the Center for Independent Living has received two grants to aid in their disaster preparedness relief efforts. They would like to engage with Berkeley, Oakland, and Alameda to ensure that the infrastructure is ready for those with disabilities. As of now, the infrastructure is not ready to aid those with mobility challenges during disasters. She notes that there is a lot of work to be done in this area and it needs to be an ongoing conversation.
 - She also notes that many of the online resources and alert systems are not accessible to individuals who use screen readers.

Exhibit A

- Zack provides his contact information: ZAdinoff@oaklandca.gov and Crystal's: ccho@oaklandca.gov and comments that he would love to work with the Commission on ensuring alerts are accessible. If there are other community groups that might have good feedback, he is also interested in taking this presentation to them.

Staff Updates and Announcements

- The next MCPD meeting in March will take place in person at City Hall in Hearing Room 1. The meeting location will be posted in the agenda.
- ADA Programs Division has been working closely with the Mayor's office to advance the two pending Commissioner appointments. Those should be scheduled for the March City Council meeting agenda.
- A former Commissioner, Reid Davenport, created a film, I Did Not See You There. The film is being streamed for free on the PBS website.
- The City recently completed its Housing Plan Update as Part of the General Plan Update. The Housing Element was approved by both the City Council and at the State Level. Of particular importance to the MCPD is Action 2.1.5 on page 64, which calls for the City to initiate community engagement to understand the need for universal design strategy, including for people with disabilities. The next step for the General Plan team with regard to the Housing Element, is to develop a draft set of Zoning code amendments to implement the Housing Element. Those draft changes will be available for public review sometime in March.
- At the state level, the California Department of Transportation is launching the State Digital Equity Plan. They are conducting three community meetings with various stakeholders and are looking for various folks to provide input by attending these meetings.
- There are still several vacancies on the MCPD. If anyone knows anyone in the community who would like to be a Commissioner please encourage them to apply.

The meeting was adjourned at 7:19 pm.

- April 1st is when the statements of economic interests (Form 700) are due for commissioners. The City Clerk will reach out to each commissioner to determine if submission is required.

Exhibit B

Future Agenda Items

- MCPD does not have many upcoming future agenda items so if there are suggestions for upcoming topics please email ADA Programs.
- A member of the public, Assata Olugbala, who works with Families for Equity, urges the Commission to consider an evaluation process to create transparency within nonprofits that provide services to the disabled community.

Roll Call

- At roll call, quorum was not established with only four of eight commissioners present (X)

Commissioners	Present (x)
Cathy Eberhardt (Vice Chair)	X
Noah Smith (Vice Chair)	X
Erin Hattersley
Ayanna Keeton
Marjorie Lynne	X
Leonard Moore
Kyle O'Malley	X

Open Forum:

- Dominique Mellion, of Families for Equity, has been a service provider for Regional Center of the East Bay (RCEB) for many years. She states that RCEB has a long history of discriminating against people of color, lacks transparency, and there are multiple people not receiving the services they should. She cautions MCPD from partnering with RCEB until these disparities are addressed.
- Assata Olugbala, a supporter of Families for Equity, has no connection to RCEB but has observed the disparities and services that are not being provided to those who need it. There has been attempts to protest and reform but they have not seen changes. MACRO has a contract with RCEB to do case-management and that should be scrutinized.

Exhibit B

- A comment submitted by Sheila Gunn-Cushman is read into the record:

As a nod to Goal 2 of MCPD's strategy plan for this year, please let the community know that the Center for Independent Living's (CIL) Emergency Preparedness and Resiliency Program (EPARP) is often activated through the Disability Disaster and Resources (DDAR) PROGRAM THROUGH THE CA Foundation for Independent Living Centers (CFILC) when there are widespread power outages, or high wind warnings where trees might fall and cause power outages in our area. These are in addition to the fire-related Public Safety Power Shutoffs (PSPS's) that can be triggered when power lines might cause a fire, and are de-energized to prevent power-related fires.

During those times, our team is available 7:00 AM to 7:00 PM to help people with disabilities and older adults who need power to do things like run heat, refrigeration for meds, or use life sustaining equipment such as oxygen or sleep apnea machines, or charge mobility devices. Our direct numbers are 510-422-5068, or 510-422-5085. We can be emailed at disasterhelp@centerforindependentliving.org. Other than those activation times, our office hours are from 9-5, Monday through Friday, and we can:

-  Give presentations about emergency preparedness;*
- Have emergency preparedness kits and supplies, and
-  Can help folks create their own family emergency plan.*
- We also have a portable battery program for those who qualify. Spanish and ASL are available now, hopefully more options to come later. We would like to be a part of the Goal 2 discussions, plans and actions.

Commissioner's Announcements

- Vice-Chair Eberhardt states that the Oakland EWG committee is now working on the Environmental Justice Element. The Housing Plan was approved by the state and the City Council accepted the majority of the committee's recommendation.

Exhibit B

Formation of an Ad-Hoc Committee to Explore Hybrid Meetings

- Vice-Chair Smith notes that with the Brown Act and the Covid State of Emergency ending- all commissioners are required to attend meetings in person, but there is some energy around pushing for a hybrid solution. He has been doing some research, with ADA Programs Division, around what other Commissions are doing and allowing- in terms of providing a hybrid option as a reasonable accommodation.
- Anh Nguyen notes that because there is no quorum- MCPD cannot vote to form the ad hoc committee at this meeting but there can be a discussion of it. He also notes that there is also potential for this committee to develop recommendations for the City of Oakland to institute hybrid opportunities for meetings to allow members of the public to comment in real-time.
- Vice-Chair Smith says he will communicate with Kyle O'Malley and ADA Programs about how to do some research on this and invites other commissioners to email him if they'd like to be involved.
- A member of the public, Assata Olugbala, raises the issue of safety when requiring members of the public to attend Commission meetings in-person and recommends the Commission pursue that angle.

2023 Strategic Planning (Exhibit B to Agenda)

- Andrea Mariano notes that MCPD is in the final stages of their strategic plan which they have been working on since November 2022. Given the lack of quorum- she recommends postponing this agenda item until next month. The final step remaining is going through the worksheet and having commissioners assign themselves to various tasks.
- Vice-Chair Eberhardt agrees with the recommendation to postpone this, rather than go through the motions and have to repeat them next month. Kyle O'Malley also agrees with this course of action.

Exhibit B

- Vice-Chair Smith clarifies that there are two absent commissioners and two new commissioners expecting to be onboard by April which would bring the total from 4 to 8 commissioners.
- Andrea Mariano recommends that commissioners work in the interim to fill in the worksheet- which would allow MCPD to proceed regardless of who is present. She notes that it's fine for more than one commission to be assigned to each goal but that it's critical that each goal have at least one commissioner assigned.
- A member of the public, Assata Olugbala, raises a concern around the goals regarding public safety and policing. She states that she attends police commission meetings and disability is not discussed. Marjorie Lynn notes that previous Commissioner Tevelson worked closely on this issue and Vice-Chair Smith states some of the past work is reflected in previous minutes. Kyle O'Malley notes that this issue remains on the MCPD's strategic plan and the commission will continue to work on this.
- Assata Olugbala also notes that MACRO is a pilot program primarily working with homeless individuals and with limited hours. She also asks if MCPD has ever made the education of students with disabilities part of its strategic plan. Vice-chair Smith responds that this hasn't been specifically part of its plan but that the MCPD does respond all Oaklanders- which includes students.

Micro-mobility Program Update (Exhibit C to Agenda)

- Seymond Sumulong starts the presentation. He is assisting Oakland's scooter program. He reports that the City previously received an average of 37.25 issues per month and 52% were sidewalk obstruction. Oakland began requiring scooter operators to have locking devices in their fleet. This led to a 28% decrease on issues related to sidewalk obstruction and the conclusion that locking devices are very effective in keeping sidewalks clear.
- As part of the scooter program- the City is actively seeking out areas to fund bike racks to accommodate more scooter parking. Currently the City has 21 new locations where they have installed bike racks with the use of scooter funds; on these racks one side is kept available for private bicycle parking.

Exhibit B

- The next presenter is Monica DiLullo from Veo. Veo was founded five years ago and has a 100% electric fleet. They hire prominently in Oakland and have a large Bay Area team. One vehicle in Veo's fleet is the Cosmo- a seated scooter. Veo also has an adaptive device- a wheelchair attachment rentable at their warehouse by anyone in the East Bay free of charge for up to a week. Veo has gone to several community events to present about this option. Right now they just have one available but are open to purchasing another if there is demand.
- Veo always lets riders know they must park scooter at a bike rack using their integrated Bluetooth lock. Riders are required to take a photo at the end of every ride; they are fine for non-compliance and on their fourth offense they are removed from the platform.
- Veo offers a low-income discounted program that costs $5 per year. This program has no unlock fees, the first ride is free up to 30 minutes and 20 cents per minute thereafter. Folks can use nearly any low-income discount available for entry into program (Snap, FAFSA, housing benefits)
- Veo has distributed over free helmets in 2022. They ensure that anyone who needs a helmet can receive one: folks can call their customer service line and Veo will deliver a helmet free of charge.
- For any inquiries: community members can contact OAKops@veoride.com
- Marjorie Lynn suggests that Veo extend their discounted rate offering to disabled riders to encourage them to use the service more. She also suggest that Veo go to events where wheelchairs users are likely to be present (suggesting Mosswood meltdown) to advertise the wheelchair attachment.
- Vice-chair Smith asks how someone reserves the wheelchair attachment and suggests this process be integrated into the app. Monica responds that as of now it's not integrated into the app but folks can reach out to the customer service line directly to make this request.

Exhibit B

- Commissioner O'Malley clarifies that photo requirement is required for every ride. Monica notes that they review a random subset on a regular basis and if they get a specific complaint Veo looks up that ticket.
- Seymond Sumulong clarifies his role in parking enforcement: he is currently the only one doing this role for the City. He does rounds in places where scooters are typically concerted and makes reports of sidewalk violations to 311. Private individuals can also make these report. Scooter companies are given a three-hour grace period to remove the obstruction before they are fined. Marjorie Lynn suggests monetizing the reporting. Seymond further clarifies that this has been very effective and that scooter companies have been removing obstructions much faster than three hours.
- The next presenter is Robert Guido on behalf of Superpedestrian. Superpedesterian launched out of MIT in 2013, got into the scooter business in 2016, and has been operating in Oakland since 2020.
- Superpedestrian provides accessible vehicles to people with disabilities. They can be rented by the hour or by the day for a maximum of three days. All vehicles are free of charge during the Pilot Period- but they don't anticipate ever charging for these vehicles.
- They have partnered with the CIL and Rio Mobility to maintain a library of two firefly wheelchair assist vehicles- based out of the Ed Roberts Campus. There is a hardware installation requirement, but the process is free of charge.
- They also have an E-trike rental that was launched in March, 2022 with a delivery model.
- Superpedestrian also offers seated scooters which provides access to people without the ability to stand for extended periods of time. Data shows that these scooters are used for longer trips.
- They have had six firefly rentals so far and the feedback has been very positive.
- Sheila Gunn-Cushman submitted a question for Superpedestrian ahead of time: 11AB 371 is a bill that requires braille and large print into on all rental scooters: what are they doing to comply? All superpedestrian scooters are outfitted with braille stickers stating the scooter number and Superpedesterian's phone number.

- Anh Nguyen thanks both presenters for taking previous MCPD feedback to heart and providing a variety of options for those with disabilities- particularly the inclusion of the firefly for manual wheelchair users.

The meeting was adjourned at 7:07
