AFTER PETITION IS FILED

Participation in the RAP hearing process for determination of tenant protected status is optional, and RAP will only have jurisdiction to address the claim of protected status if BOTH parties agree. If the other party agrees to have RAP address the claim, they must file a Response within 30 days after service of the Petition (35 days if served by mail). They must serve you with a copy of their Response form and any attachments filed with the Response. Failure by the other party to file a timely Response will be interpreted as an indication that they do not wish to participate in the RAP hearing process, and no hearing will be scheduled.

If the other party does file a timely Response form indicating that they agree to have RAP address the claim of protected status, RAP will move forward with scheduling a hearing. You will be mailed a Notice of Hearing indicating the hearing date. If you are unable to attend the hearing, contact RAP as soon as possible. The hearing will only be postponed for good cause.

CONFIDENTIAL NATURE OF HEARING

Evidence of a tenant's disability or illness is deemed confidential. Hearings will not be open to the public. Records of hearings and decisions will not be considered public records for purposes of the California Public Records Act (Cal. Government Code § 6250, et seq.). The owner or their representative, agent, or attorney may not release any evidence or records or information contained in such evidence or records pertaining to the tenant's disability or illness to a person other than the parties or their representatives for the hearing.

FILE/DOCUMENT REVIEW

Either party may contact RAP to review the case file and/or to request copies of any documents pertaining to the case at any time prior to the scheduled hearing.
