

Screening Panel Application 2020-21 Redistricting Commission

Overview

The Redistricting Commission Screening Panel is a three-member panel charged with reviewing applications for the City's independent Redistricting Commission and developing a qualified pool of 30 applicants that reflect the geographic, racial, ethnic and economic diversity of the City of Oakland.

The Screening Panel will review and deliberate all eligible applications in June/July 2020 and determine the qualified pool of 30 applicants by early-August 2020.

The Redistricting Commission is an independent body that will determine the district lines for Oakland City Council and Oakland Unified School District elections.

Screening Panel members cannot serve on the Redistricting Commission. For more information on the Screening Panel and redistricting process visit: www.oaklandca.gov/redistricting.
