Directions for filling out the Special Assessment Exemption Application

Submit exemption application as soon as possible. 2022-2023 property tax does not need to be paid prior to submission of the exemption application. If exemption application is approved, special assessments are removed from 2022-2023 property tax statement. A refund check will not be issued.

1. To qualify for the exemption, you must be the owner and occupant of the property. Please fill in your last, first and middle names, along with the parcel number and address. The potential amount of the exemption will depend on the type of property shown in the table below.

Use Code as defined by Alameda County	Potential Exemption
Single Family Home	100%
Duplex	50%
Triplex	33%
Fourplex	25%
Five Units+	Not Eligible

2. Examples of supporting documentation include income tax returns, W-2 statements, social security benefit letters, rent receipts, and other award letters. All taxable and non-taxable income is included in the combined household income.

If submitting individual income tax return, attach a copy of pages 1 and 2.

- If you file a Schedule 1, submit Schedule 1.
- If you file a Schedule C, submit Schedule C.
- If you file a Schedule E, submit Schedule E.

Information for No-Income Affidavit.

- If a household member is age 18 and over and has no income, a No-Income Affidavit must be included.
- If a household member is age 26 or younger and is listed as a dependent on the individual tax return, a No-Income Affidavit does not need to be included.

No-Income Affidavit can be downloaded at:

<https://www.oaklandca.gov/documents/special-assessment-no-income-affidavit>

3. Check the total number of residents and total combined household income (taxable and non-taxable income) against the Very Low Income 50%/60% Combined 2021 Household Income table on application page.
For individuals 65 years of age and over, on or prior to July 1, 2022 (submit proof of age-photo ID or birth certificate), an exemption for Measure D and Q only may be possible, if total household income does not exceed the Low Income 80% level per U.S. Housing and Urban Development. See table on application page.
4. All persons who conduct business and/or rent property or rooms in the City of Oakland are required to register and pay for an annual business tax certificate in order to be approved for an exemption. For further information: <https://www.oaklandca.gov/services/business-tax-applications-1>
5. Be sure to print name, sign and date the application, and provide contact information. If a co-owner is listed on the property deed, they must print their name, sign and date the application, and provide contact information.
6. Check application status online <https://www.oaklandca.gov/services/spare>

Submission of documents does not guarantee approval. Additional documentation may be requested.
