

Parking Troubles?

Looking for parking can be frustrating. Luckily, Oakland is home to a variety of transportation options that might work for you!

TRANSIT

When planning a trip, check to see if you and your destination are close to an AC Transit bus stop, BART station, or Ferry. Get a refillable Clipper Card to make your trip as easy as possible.

CAR SHARE

Owning a car is expensive. With car share, you pay only for the time you use. If you primarily need a car for non-work trips and errands, car share could work for you.

Multiple services operate in Oakland:

BIKE

Biking can be a fun and healthy way to get around Oakland. There are safe and secure bike parking options throughout the city and bike share is also available if you don't want to worry about locking up your own bike.

WALK

With dense neighborhoods and plenty of local shops and restaurants, Oakland is a delightful place to walk around. Walking is both an active way to travel and a great way to get to know the city. Instead of driving to your favorite local spots, enjoy the fresh air and give walking a try.
