Touch the Earth – ages 5.9 - 12 9am to 4pm (That’s right. One more hour at last years price.) Each theme-based week is held in the Redwoods at Joaquin Miller Park. The Staff lead children on nature hikes, teach environmental awareness, arts and crafts, games, with swimming on Fridays.

Counselors in Training – ages 12-15 9am to 3pm Youth learn job skills and responsibilities as they assist staff with programs. CIT’s are usually assigned to Touch the Earth but can help with Young Naturalist.

Shake, Rattle & Roll – ages 11-15 9am to 3pm A week-long four level camp teaches outdoor living skills of: fire making, cordage, tool making, arrows, bow making and survival. To be taken in order: Beginners, Intermediate, Advanced and Bow making. Drop off and pickup at the Touch the Earth location.
